

For Immediate Release

Institute for Human Services

Contact: Susan Yingling

1706 E. Broad Street

Columbus, OH 43203

614-251-6000

SYingling@ihs-trainet.com

Release Date: August 12, 2021

Institute for Human Services Team Shares Child Welfare Expertise with Over 600 People at Prevent Child Abuse America Conference

Columbus, OH – August 11, 2021 - The Institute for Human Services had the pleasure of bringing expertise on advancing and empowering child welfare systems to the Prevent Child Abuse America: Transforming Our Tomorrow conference. Natalie Adams and Amanda Beach presented: Coaching: An Effective Process for Managers. Nan Beeler and Amanda Beach presented: Curriculum Development and Adaptation-The Science for Success in Adult Learners. Amanda Beach and Alex Bishara presented: Assessing Safety and Safety Planning in Substance Use Disorder cases. Each session also offered strategies for the promotion of cultural humility, racial equity, and inclusion in the workforce and in the field of child welfare.

Over 600 people from 27 states actively participated in the virtual sessions presented by IHS.

Give us a call today to schedule a free consultation to see how IHS can advance your child welfare system.

###